CCC YOUTH ..... in action

The Chi Rho Youth Group got together on Pentecost Sunday for a little discussion about The Holy Spirit. A big THANK YOU to Pastor David and Deb Mills for leading this discussion. The kids really appreciated you taking time out of your busy schedule to lead them on this.

PUPPET PUPPETS EVERYWHERE
Yes, that's right...Puppets. The kids of CCC have pulled out their puppeting skills and have started a Puppet Class on Sunday mornings at 9am. Kids age 8+ are invited to join in. Thanks to Matt Jones for stepping up and leading this group

A huge THANK YOU to the six (6) members of Clinton Christian Church's Chi Rho Youth Group for taking time out of their busy summer schedule to help place flags at the headstones of veterans at Englewood Cemetery on the Friday before Memorial Day. Thank You for showing your community pride and your thankfulness for those that served our great country.

The CCC Youth sponsored and worked the concession stand at the Red Roof Flea Market. They served biscuits and gravy and cinnamon rolls for breakfast and pulled pork sandwiches and chips for lunch. The cost of the meal was free, however they did accept a Free Will Offering. $539.50 was donated to the youth from this project. Nice Job, kids!

Concerns and Celebrations

rummage news

July will soon be here and so will the rummage sale. Please collect your items and pack them in boxes to place on the stage AFTER JUNE 30. Our youth continue to use the stage to play games, so please place your boxes on the north wall next to the closet. Thank you. If you need boxes, Dollar Tree will allow you to get boxes in their containers outside the building. You may need to retape them. And please save the holiday items for the youth to sell later this fall. They will let you know when to bring it. Thank you so much for your support. We are following our #LoveGod#LoveOthers by allowing "others" first choice of our rummage items.

MEMBERSHIP GOINGS ON

Hello everyone in Membership Land. Random thoughts: Writing newsletter articles without a specific person in mind is hard to do. I am writing this with one person in mind, but I am not sharing who that person is. Ever. It is just a way to get words on paper. Do lines in songs ever catch your attention? Do they become ear worms? I have a line that has burrowed deep into the recesses of my mind. "There but for the Grace of God go I". Do book titles ever catch your eye? Happens to me all the time. I am going through my book collection and stumbled across this beauty: The Biggest Lie in the History of Christianity. Pretty bold title. Pretty bold statement, too. I have put it in my 'read next' pile; a pile consisting of 12 books, including this one. Plus the one I am reading. If I can be a better me, the 12 will be done before I go back to school in August. Just some random thoughts that may get you to thinking.

Past Membership activities: Red Roof Flea Market. That was held the Saturday of Memorial Day Weekend. The weather was beautiful. The youth group raised over $500 from the concessions. I know that Jody and I did just fine, funds wise. I talked to a couple of other vendors and they seemed satisfied. It was a wonderful day.

The last Fellowship Dinner saw the use of new table clothes. I hope everyone liked the new red and black checked design. I know that there are plans to donate two more round tables so that we have 10 and can (hopefully) not need the long tables when we use the round ones. Having to seat as many as we do at Fellowship Dinners is a blessing, not a problem; we would just like to make the experience equitable for all.

Speaking of Fellowship Dinners, Membership would like to give out a huge Thank You to everyone for coming in the Fellowship Hall doors and not through the kitchen. It is much safer for everyone. An additional thanks for not using the Community Cafe's one time use 'to go' containers, too. Our new normal is better and safer. Thanks to all.

The timing of the newsletter always confuses me. I don't know if you get this right before Game Night or right after. Either way, if you have not been to Game Night, you are missing out. You may find this hard to believe, but I am not much of a 'games' person. But I really enjoy Game Night. I have been blessed to get to know people in our church in a different way. I consider these people friends and not just 'someone I go to church with'. Come and get to know others in a different way. And bring the kids. We usually have Betty available (she is not going to be at the May 31st Game Night). Bring a game you like to play—if you have one—or join in with Pitch, dominoes, Yatzee, Sequence, contract rummy, or any of a number of other games that we have at the church.

I will leave off with the menus for the next few events. Next Fellowship Dinner, Father's Day, will be Fried Chicken with smashed potatoes and gravy. Next Game Night, May 31st, will be sandwiches, Game Night after is pulled pork. Don't forget that you can join Membership by showing up to our meeting which is the first Thursday of the month at 5:30 in the Fellowship Hall (but will move to Holy Grounds in June).

LOVE
HAS
YOU

Thank You to all that were able to donate to the May Outreach Project.

During May we collected toilet paper to distribute to the numerous local projects that we support:

Blessing Box
Zoe's House
H.O.P.E. Project
Survival House
Homeless Clients

Thank You for your help!

Remember the "back to school" list you got before school started? Pencils, paper, erasers, scissors, KLEENEX, etc. Thanks to all of you that participated in the April Outreach Project, the Clinton Schools don't have to worry as much about having enough KLEENEX.

Pictured here is Church in Society member Pat Bouse delivering all of the Kleenex (facial tissue) we collected during April to the Administration Building of the Clinton School District.

Just another way Clinton Christian Church is making a difference in the community.

CHURCH IN SOCIETY REPORT

CIS met on Monday, May 13th.

Thank you to all the Church members for your generous donations for our Community Outreach Projects. The Kleenex have been delivered to the Clinton School District.

The Laundry detergent was distributed to Survival House, Zoes Home, Clinton Community of Christ for their Blessing Box and we delivered detergent to Fred & Cindy here in Clinton to help with their clean up of what they can salvage from their house fire.

This months Toilet Paper project will help Zoes Home and Survival House.

June's outreach will be collecting Baby Wipes & Diapers for Golden Valley Door of Hope, Survival House and Zoe's House.

We appreciate how giving our church family is in helping us to bless our community and meet so many individuals needs.

THANK YOU !!! THANK YOU !!!

REMEMBER - 10% OF ALL MONIES GOING TO THE GENERAL FUND
ARE USED FOR THESE OUTREACH PROJECTS.
IT IS BECAUSE OF YOU THAT WE ARE ABLE TO HELP

MANY SCRATCHED THEIR ITCH AT THE RED ROOF FLEA MARKET

Memorial Day Weekend means many things to different people. First and foremost, it's a time to remember those that gave their their lives to defend our country's freedom. It is also the unofficial beginning of summer. Here at Clinton Christian Church, Memorial Day Weekend means Red Roof Flea Market. This annual Flea Market in our front parking lot has become a go to for many of our local "flea marketers". This year was no different. With a variety of goods being sold, shoppers found more than enough to satisfy their Flea Market Itch. Thanks to all that helped set up and tear down. Thanks to the CCC kids for running the concession stand. And thanks to all the vendors that made this year's Flea Market a huge success.

CWF Happenings

Rummage Sale: Pat Bouse is leading the rummage sale effort this year. It will be held July 26-27.

Spring Trip: Twenty ladies enjoyed a play, Squabbles, at the New Theatre in Overland Park on May 8. We had a great time.

Mark Your Calendar...The Disciples Women Meeting is in Warrensburg on Tuesday, June 18, 2024, at 9:30 am. There's a sign-up sheet in the church lobby. We'll carpool or take the church van and plan to gather at the church at 8:30 that morning to leave at 8:45am.

Questions? See Maryann Van Dyke or Lisa Wallace

CWF Group Reminders: If you are not a member of a group, you are invited to meet with Phoebes, the daytime group – they meet monthly on the second Thursday at 11:30am. Or the evening JOY group – they meet on the third Monday evening at 5:30pm. Both groups meet in the Holy Grounds.

The next Executive Committee Meeting is Monday, June 3, 2024, at 10 am.

A group of ladies from CWF (Christian Women's Fellowship) loaded into the Church Van and made their way to Overland Park, KS to enjoy a matinee show at The New Theater.

Word has it that the show was good (starred Donny Most, Ralph Malph on Happy Days) and the food was delicious.

Everyone had a great time and are looking forward to doing it again in the near future.
